

Observe people who are good at their work - skilled workers are always in demand and admired; they don't take a back seat to anyone. Proverbs 22:29 The Message	Commit yourself to instruction; attune your ears to words of knowledge. Proverbs 23:12 New Living Translation	People who cover their sins will not prosper. But if they confess and forsake them, they will receive mercy. Proverbs 28:13 New Living Translation
Committed and persistent work pays off; get-rich-quick schemes are ripoffs. Proverbs 28:20 The Message	Hard workers have plenty of food; playing around brings poverty Proverbs 28:19 New Living Translation	Words kill, words give life; they're either poison or fruit -you choose. Proverbs 18:21 The Message
It's only human to want to make a buck, but its better to be poor than a liar. Proverbs 19:22 The Message	Don't wear yourself out trying to get rich; restrain yourself! Riches disappear in the blink of an eye; wealth sprouts wings and flies into the wild blue yonder. Proverbs 23:4-5 The Message	First plant your fields then build your barn. Proverbs 24:27 The Message
Don't work yourself into the spotlight; don't push your way into the place of prominence. It's better to be promoted to a place of honor then face humiliation by being demoted. Proverbs 25: 6-7 The Message	Smart people know how to hold their tongue; their grandeur is to forgive and forget. Proverbs 19:11 The Message	Know your sheep by name; carefully attend your flocks; (Don't take them for granted; possessions don't last forever, you know) And then, when the crops are in an the harvest is stored in the barns, You can knit sweaters from lambs' wool, and sell your goats for a profit; There will be plenty of milk and meat to last your family through the winter. Proverbs 27:23-27 The Message